

CS 411 B2

Team 3

User Stories

User Story 4: As a logged in user I want to logout of the app.

Description: The user will navigate to the profile page and click the “Sign Out” button which will logout the user and return to the login page. Should the user want to log back in then they just need to enter their username and password for the app in the login page and click the “Login” button and they will be redirected to the home page.